

THINK

Do you Stop,
Look, Listen and Think?

Who can demonstrate how to Stop, Look, Listen and Think?

A young man with short brown hair, wearing a bright orange puffer jacket and blue jeans, stands on a city sidewalk. He is looking directly at the camera with a neutral expression. In the background, a white van is driving on the street, and there are trees and buildings. The scene is overcast.

ROAD READY? EXPECT THE UNEXPECTED

Road ready? Expect the unexpected film

THINK

Why was the girl about to run across the road without looking?

THINK

What was Sam's advice?

THINK

Why is it dangerous to cross the road in front of a bus?

THINK

Can you think of a top tip for someone trying to cross the road after getting off the bus?

THINK

Can you spot the hazard in this scene?
What is the best way to eliminate this hazard?

THINK

What is the main potential hazard in this scene?

THINK

How could the group have avoided the hazard?

Are you road ready?

You and your friend are walking home from school with your parent/guardian. You find yourself quite a long way ahead of everyone and you reach a really busy road.

Your friend is keen to cross the road.
What would you do to stay safe?

It's the school holidays and you have been playing with your friends in the front garden. Someone suggests kicking the ball over the road from one side of the street to the other.

Your road isn't that busy. What's the best thing to do?

How will you become even more road ready from today?

Have a think about the journeys you take and where you need to use the advice you've learned today.